Design-strong showering pleasure

Thermostat shower mixers complement the PLAN blue series of fittings made by KEUCO

KEUCO fittings "made in Germany" combine first-class design, flawless finishes, highest functionality and quality. A timeless and durable design language characterizes the sustainable design of the PLAN blue range of fittings. That allows them to harmonize with different interior styles and makes them universal when it comes to use in bathroom design. Two new on-wall shower fittings complement the extensive PLAN blue range. Either a thermostat shower mixer or a combination with an integrated head and hand shower: they will impress you with their slim PLAN blue design and extremely precise workmanship.

The shower mixer with head and hand shower is perfect for both private bathrooms and hotel bathrooms. Both thermostat shower mixers are an ideal choice for new buildings and for renovation objects.

Modern elegance for the shower

In addition to classic brilliant chrome finishes, PLAN blue thermostatic shower mixers are available with a modern black matte finish - thus setting strong accents whilst playing an essential role in bathroom design. KEUCO products with a black finish impress with their special depth of colour bringing a luxurious touch to the bathroom. A special lacquer coating makes them insensitive, durable and easy to clean - not only ideal for private bathrooms, but also in trendy contract furnishings. The velvety matt surface offers an extremely pleasant feel. Matching KEUCO shower shelves nicely round off the aesthetic image in the shower.

Comfortable showering pleasure

The design-strong flat head shower offers additional showering comfort thanks to its height-adjustable shower rail. More to that, the large overhead shower with a diameter of 250mm can be swivelled to the desired position. The hand shower can also be used and easily positioned at the right height with a shower slide.
